The Art and Library Committee intends to have fifteen concerts given on Sunday afternoons during the winter months. Mr. Arthur Whiting has undertaken the management of the concerts, which will be conducted on essentially the same plan as last year; that is to say, eight by a string quartet, and the others made up of piano-forte and vocal music by eminent artists. The expenses must be about $1,500.

The enclosed can be returned to the Art and Library Committee with the amount of subscription.
